

Are All Parishes the Same?

The answer is "No." Each has its own personality. So much goes into the composition. The pastor sets the tone. The parishioners are most important. Unity is required; not everyone is the same. To achieve success, we must work together.

At Holy Cross, the cooperation is outstanding; the best I have ever witnessed. Each person contributes to it and the "oil" of unity shows, making things flow smoothly.

As Jesus says, "Without me, you can do nothing."

Father Eisemann